Hear This, All People, and Give Ear

6. (Their soul's redemption precious is,
and it can never be,)
That still he should for ever live,
and not corruption see.

7. For why? he seeth that wise men die,
and brutish fools also
Do perish; and their wealth, when dead,
to others they let go.

8. Their inward thought is, that their house and dwelling-places shall Stand through all ages; they their lands
by their own names do call.

9. But yet in honour shall not man
abide continually;
But passing hence, may be compared unto the beasts that die.

10. Thus brutish folly plainly is their wisdom and their way;
Yet their posterity approve
what they do fondly say.

11. Like sheep they in the grave are laid,
and death shall them devour;
And in the morning upright men
shall over them have power:

12. Their beauty from their dwelling shall consume within the grave.
But from hell's hand God will me free,
for he shall me receive.

13. Be thou not then afraid when one enriched thou dost see,
Nor when the glory of his house
advanced is on high:

14. For he shall carry nothing hence
when death his days doth end;
Nor shall his glory after him
into the grave descend.

15. Although he his own soul did bless whilst he on earth did live;
(And when thou to thyself dost well,
men will thee praises give;)

16. He to his fathers' race shall go,
they never shall see light.
Man honoured wanting knowledge is like beasts that perish quite.
