O God, the Heathen Entered Have

6. On heathen pour thy fury forth,
that have thee never known,
And on those kingdoms which thy name
have never called upon.

7. For these are they who Jacob have devoured cruelly;
And they his habitation
have caused waste to lie.

8. Against us mind not former sins;
thy tender mercies show;
Let them prevent us speedily,
for we're brought very low.

9. For thy name's glory help us, Lord,
who hast our Saviour been:
Deliver us; for thy name's sake,
O purge away our sin.

10. Why say the heathen, Where's their God?
let him to them be known;
When those who shed thy servants' blood
are in our sight o'erthrown.

11. O let the pris'ner's sighs ascend
before thy sight on high;
Preserve those in thy mighty pow'r
that are designed to die.

12. And to our neighbours' bosom cause
it sev'n-fold rendered be,
Ev'n the reproach wherewith they have,
O Lord, reproached thee.

13. So we thy folk, and pasture-sheep,
shall give thee thanks always;
And unto generations all
we will show forth thy praise.
